Missio—Red Box Collection

A big thank you to all parishioners who contributed to the sum of £7,009.20 in their Red Boxes last year. Later in the year we will receive from the London office the total contributed from the parish which will include the annual members. Our National Director, Fr Anthony Chantry, says that whenever he visits communities that benefit from your donations, they are amazed that in churches across England people care and pray for them. They always assure him that they pray for you too. Thank you also for the promoters who empty the boxes and for their support. We are short in some areas, e.g. Pyrford and Woodham Lane. If you can help please contact Rafaela on 01483 762075.

Gift Aid envelopes are being ordered for the next tax year. Last year some parishioners indicated that they would not need the blue Retiring Collection envelopes as they already had sufficient blue envelopes for the half dozen or so Gift Aidable Retiring Collections. Ordering fewer envelopes will obviously save costs for the Parish. Could Parishioners who have sufficient blue Retiring Collection envelopes for the coming tax year and do not need a new batch in March please either let the Gift Aid Organiser know by email (brianmckendry@msn.com) or contact the Parish Office. White envelopes for the weekly Offertory Collection are always Gift Aidable and will be ordered as normal.

Mass Readings for 10th February 2019

Isaiah: 6:1-8

We notice Isaiah has a dramatic vision of God in the temple. He recognises both this special moment 'my eyes have seen the King, the Lord of hosts!' and yet feels unworthy of the experience acknowledging his 'unclean lips'. God responds to reassure Isaiah, through the Seraph, purifying Isaiah with fire and words of forgiveness. Hearing the call 'Whom shall I send ...?' Isaiah is able to respond to the call.

1 Corinthians 15: 1-11

St Paul shares with us what many scholars believe to be an extremely early creed of the Christian faith; expressing fundamental aspects of our faith and what we believe in. Namely, that 'Christ died for our sins', 'Christ was buried' and 'was raised to life on the third day'. Listening, believing and following this message gifts us with salvation. Paul acknowledges that it is only through God's grace that he has been able to share this Good News.

Luke 5:-11

We learn of the call of the first disciples. We notice the attractiveness of Jesus; crowds of people are pressing in on him to listen to the Word of God. To our surprise, Jesus invites an uninvolved observer, Simon, who is cleaning his nets 'to put out a little from the shore'. After awhile, Jesus asks him to put out into deep water for a catch, this is a challenge as Simon's experience as a fisherman leaves him sceptical; it's a challenge to trust. Simon responds out of respect for Jesus. To his amazement there is a wondrous catch, this feeling moves to fright, conscious of his weaknesses in the presence of divine power. Jesus reassures and the fishermen follow him.

Readings Next Weekend:

Jeremiah, 17:5-8; Psalm 1:1-4, 6;
1 Corinthians, 15:12, 16-20; Luke, 6:17, 20-26.

Thank You for last Sunday's Offertory collection of £3,707.70 (the cash offertory plus the average of the standing orders).

The retiring collection this weekend is for the Lourdes Pilgrimage Fund, which will be eligible for Gift Aid and envelopes will be available. The retiring collection next week will be for the Catholic Association for Racial Justice.
